

Further texts for each strategy – Module 3

Once the strategy is introduced to students and they have had the opportunity for guided and individual practice, you may use the structure of these lessons and apply these to texts of your own choice. The texts in this module have been selected from titles in AlphaExplore. Further short texts, appropriate for further teaching of each strategy, may be found in the AlphaExplore books listed in the chart below.

Strategy	Model the strategy	Supported practice	Independent practice	Independent practice	Independent practice
Making Connections	Our charter of rights from: 	What we did to help the environment from: 	Coral reefs under threat from: 	Being homeless from: 	Should animals have rights? from:
Monitoring and Clarifying	Exploring the ocean from: 	Where would we be without these? from: 	Forecasting the weather from: 	The bionic ear from: 	Riding the Internet wave from:
Predicting and Inferring	A successful evacuation from: 	Mother Teresa: a hero from: 	Working together in an emergency from: 	Life-saving leeches from: 	Preventing illness from:
Questioning	Thunderstorms and survival from: 	Masters of movement from: 	Starting life from: 	Surviving the desert from: 	Pacific salmon: an amazing journey from:
Summarising	Sounds in the sea from: 	Polar bears: surviving in the Arctic from: 	The octopus: a case study from: 	Dogs at work from: 	Alligator research from:
Visualising	Building a beaver lodge from: 	Using sticks and stones from: 	Special body parts from: 	Interview with a palaeontologist from: 	Rock climbing from: 