

Further texts for each strategy – Module 4

Once the strategy is introduced to students and they have had the opportunity for guided and individual practice, you may use the structure of these lessons and apply these to texts of your own choice. The texts in this module have been selected from titles in AlphaExplore. Further short texts, appropriate for further teaching of each strategy, may be found in the AlphaExplore books listed in the chart below.

Strategy	Model the strategy	Supported practice	Independent practice	Independent practice	Independent practice
Making Connections	Animal messages from: 	Messages from space from: 	Getting the mail through from: 	The invention of Morse code from: 	Can apes use language? from:
Monitoring and Clarifying	Surviving in a watery world from: 	Polar deserts from: 	Galapagos – a unique island habitat from: 	Surviving wild weather from: 	The mystery of the Anasazi people from:
Predicting and Inferring	Adventures on mountains from: 	Icy Antarctica from: 	Antarctic explorers from: 	Awesome oceans from: 	The challenge of ice diving from:
Questioning	Polar bears in danger from: 	Melting glaciers in the Himalayas from: 	Saving giant pandas from: 	Protecting the ocean from: 	Butterflies under threat from:
Summarising	Venice: sink or swim from: 	Ur – the first city from: 	Manhattan – a city island from: 	Historic Sanctuary of Machu Picchu from: 	Pompeii unearthed from:
Visualising	Investigating elephants from: 	What makes a hero? from: 	Making a difference from: 	Working for UNICEF from: 	Nile crocodiles: predators and protectors from: 